

AROUND the TOWNSHIP

By Henry Alderman

F. L. Amaral is taking up flying in a big way. Nearly every week his cronies from the Alameda airport come to the township via plane to call on him. Lieut. Ray Poletti was his most recent visitor, flew down, had dinner in Niles and took Amaral on a flight over the district. Amaral has a student pilot's license and a number of solo hours to his credit.

Unusual Tree

Remarkable floral display in Niles is the tree dahlia in the front yard of Mrs. Ida Easterday.

Covered with a profusion of pink blooms, the tree is well over 12 feet tall. It is now in its second blooming.

Mrs. Easterday received a slip from her son who lives in San Francisco and reports that it has grown rapidly. She has given slips to two other persons, Mrs. Bernard and Mrs. R. Calhoun, but they have not had quite such good luck with theirs. She believes hers is the only tree dahlia of its size anywhere around.

Joe Brown on Spot

Joe Brown, school board clerk, leading grocer, past supreme president of the I. D. E. S., postmaster and unofficial mayor of the city of Warm Springs, pop. 240, is daily expecting a chicken due him as third prize for regular attendance at Mission Peak Council of the I. D. E. S. during the past year.

Some time ago we reported the lodge's method of awarding attendance prizes. Members pledged themselves to give the various prizes to those whose records were highest. First prize was a turkey donated by the council.

When attendance records were tallied last week and Brown found he had won third prize, he wanted to know the identity of the donor so that he could go collect his chicken.

Archives were consulted and it was discovered that the donor was Joe Brown of Warm Springs.

Joe says he's going to hold himself to the offer and see that he gives himself the chicken or know the reason why.

Joe Vivieros

New officers were elected by the Niles junior chamber the other night. Vice President Joe Vivieros presided at his last meeting. After election Vivieros speeded up an adjournment and prevented a plan to call attention to his fine work in the office.

Vivieros took control of the junior chamber at a difficult time.

Political antipathies had crept into the organization and had threatened to disrupt the membership during the period of primary and general elections.

Attendance had fallen off bickering broke out at meetings.

Vivieros, by exercising a good deal of tact and by keeping his temper while occupying the chair, brought the organization through its troubles into calm waters. Few persons could have done it.

CHURCH PLANS WHIST

The members of the Holy Rosary Church are making final arrangements for their Turkey whist party to be held at the Decoto Grammar School auditorium on Thursday evening, December 10.

NILES TEAM BEATS ALVARADO

CHANCE STILL OFFERED FOR LATE ENTRANTS TO WIN BIG AWARDS

Niles Chamber To Judge Christmas Tree Lighting

NILES—Enthusiastic support of a plan to get local people to decorate living Christmas trees in their yards was given by members of the Niles chamber of commerce at their regular meeting on Monday.

In accordance with suggestions from the state chamber of commerce and D. R. Rees, who wrote an editorial on the subject in last week's Township Register, Dr. E. C. Grau, chamber president, named W. B. Kirk, A. J. Petsche and E. A. Ellsworth as judges to drive around the township Christmas week and inspect the trees with the plan for picking out those most tastefully decorated for honorable mention.

Township residents are urged to use their best abilities toward these decorations with the idea in mind that if enough popular response is shown, a regular contest with annual prizes will be worked out for future years.

NILES—The Niles Junior Chamber of Commerce baseball team continued to march toward the championship Sunday by defeating Alvarado 3 to 0.

The Niles team scored its first run in the third inning and put the game on ice by scoring again in the fifth and sixth.

John Aguilar pitching his seventh straight win, struck out seven and allowed five hits.

Joe Ferreira led the Niles club by smashing out two hits. L. Silva and H. Jacinto led the attack for the losers by getting two hits apiece.

Amaral pitched steady ball but the Niles team proved too powerful.

Next Sunday, December 13 Niles will invade Hayward to cross bats with the Ramos Real Estate team. The home boys look for a tough battle.

DR. MULLEN ADDRESSES LIONS CLUB

CENTERVILLE—The principal speaker at the Lions Club meeting on Tuesday evening of this week was Eugene W. Mullen, medical superintendent of the Agnew State Hospital.

He delivered an excellent talk on "How and why we become insane" discussing the various complexes that people acquire and how their train of thought leads to psychopathic cases. Dr. Mullen has been with the state hospital for 25 years and declares that the housing situation has become acute, inmates being cared for in crowded conditions.

At their business session, the Lions decided to have their Christmas Tree party for the grammar school children and for the children of the Club members on Tuesday, December 22.

After the meeting, Jack Klein served a dinner to all present and the members wished him every success in his new enterprise. He is opening an eating place in Centerville.

The Board of Directors will meet next Monday for the purpose of making final plans for their Christmas tree party and to talk over the annual banquet given for the junior patrol units of Southern Alameda County, which is to be held this year on December 21 at Pleasanton. It is expected that 250 will attend the banquet, of which 190 boys make up the number. Professional and business men interested in the movement will be there.

A. J. Petsche has been appointed chairman for the first meeting in January, the next regular meeting being dispensed with due to the Christmas party.

SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS MEET

NILES—The Niles Congregational Sunday school teachers attended a meeting Monday at the parsonage, Reverend and Mrs. Day acting as host and hostess. Those present were Mesdames White, Duffie, Franklin and Miss Crane.

Mrs. J. Oliver is up and around again. She suffered severe bruises in a fall.

CHRISTMAS PARTY FOR KIDS COMING

Mickey Mouse, Our Gang and others will perform on the afternoon of December 24 at the Niles theatre when Niles boys and girls will be guests of the junior chamber of commerce at its annual Christmas party.

Bill Helm, chairman of the committee in charge of the party, is lining up many fine acts from among the local boys and girls. Fun contests will be held on the stage.

Santa Claus will be present to distribute candy to the youngsters. Members of the Niles P. T. A. have offered the junior chamber their help in putting on the party.

MOORES INJURED IN AUTO CRASH

CENTERVILLE—Mr. and Mrs. Moore and two daughters of Centerville Apartments, Centerville, were in an accident Saturday night December 5, on their way home from Oakland. The family was taken to the Oakland General Hospital. Mr. Moore was first considered critically hurt, but is at present out of danger. Mrs. Moore and oldest daughter received minor cuts and bruises. They left the hospital Sunday night. The youngest daughter received a broken arm and cuts. She is at the hospital now with Mr. Moore.

NEW UNIT OF PATROL BOYS ORGANIZED

WARM SPRINGS—A unit of the Junior Traffic Patrol is being organized at the Warm Springs School under the direction of Captain L. A. Eike of the California Highway Patrol. The group is being sponsored by the Board of Trustees, of which J. S. Brown is the Clerk, and by Charles Ryan, proprietor of Charlie's Tavern, Warm Springs.

Instruction will be given the boys by officer George Barron of the Highway Patrol, who has charge of the junior traffic patrol in southern Alameda County. L. H. Maffey, principal of the school is captain in direct charge of the unit. Weekly passes for the boys of the patrol have already been donated by the American Theatre of San Jose, and the boys are invited to a Christmas turkey dinner to be given by the junior traffic patrol board in Pleasanton. Installation of the unit will take place in the near future.

SHARPE TO HEAD NILES JUNIOR CHAMBER IN 1937

NILES TREE TO LIGHT UP SOON

NILES—A bigger and better Christmas tree for Niles was planned this week by the Niles chamber of commerce. George Bonde was named chairman of the committee in charge of the decorations this year. Assisting him will be A. J. Petsche, W. B. Kirk and E. E. Dias.

Owing to the fact that the tree has grown rapidly during the past year, the committee was empowered to buy additional strings of lights if necessary.

Plans were made by the chamber for a Christmas dinner to be held on the Monday before Christmas. Turkeys, fixings and a speaking program will be arranged.

NAME FOR NEW BRIDGE UNLIKELY

NILES—The state highway department will not permit any bridge units highway system to be named after any local persons, officials told A. J. Petsche, representative of the Niles chamber of commerce, in San Francisco last week.

Petsche made the trip to the highway offices in an attempt to find out if it would be possible to name the new Alameda creek bridge after some prominent Niles person.

He was told that the highway commission has passed a ruling preventing any such policy. He was told further that the policy was necessary to prevent local rivalries and that, in the case of the Bay bridge, it was proving highly desirable.

GRAND OFFICERS TO VISIT NSGW

CENTERVILLE—The Native Sons are having their next meeting Tuesday, December 15. It will be in honor of the anniversary and an initiation will be put on by Washington parlor. Several grand officers will be present. A banquet will follow the meeting, with Judge A. G. Norris in charge. The banquet will be held at Jack Klein's.

NILES—Lawrence Sharpe, secretary of the Niles Junior chamber of commerce for the past year, was elected president for 1937 at the annual business meeting of the group in the Boy Scout house Monday evening.

L. L. Lewis was elected vice president; Dick Attinger, secretary; Henry Alderman, treasurer, and Frank Duarte, Bill Cavanaugh, H. V. Fournier and Ernest Frick, directors. Raymond Crane and Jerry Rebello were tied for fifth directorship and a runoff will be held between the two.

Sharpe outlined his plans for the coming year with the declaration that he expected to push present projects through to completion. He called on all members to give the organization as full support as possible.

John Brown, chairman of the turkey whist given in November reported a small profit from the venture and Bill Cavanaugh discussed plans for the New Year's dance.

Suggestions for changes in the administration of the night watchman's work were tabled for consideration after the new board of directors has an opportunity to meet.

CASEYS PLAN PEDRO SMOKER

CENTERVILLE—The Knights of Columbus are having their regular meeting Thursday night. A Pedro smoker and smoker will be held, after which refreshments will be served. George Kommes and E. J. Pimentel will be in charge.

PAIR IN ACCIDENT

CENTERVILLE—Alfred Sousa and Eugene Peleir were in an accident on their way home from San Jose recently. The boys were on a motorcycle when going around a corner turned over and both were injured. Eugene had his arm broken while Alfred had to have three stitches taken in the side of his face.

GROUP ATTENDS MISSION

NILES—The Rev. C. R. Day took the young people of the Congregational church to Hayward Sunday to attend the mission services being held there. Both afternoon and evening sessions were attended.

MEN'S CLUB BUSY ON XMAS JINKS

NILES—A nine piece orchestra will furnish music at the annual Christmas jinks of the Men's club which will be held December 17 at the American Legion hall, says A. J. Petsche, secretary. Hill Billy entertainment and tap dancing will be additional features of the affair.

Chairman in charge of entertainment is E. D. Bristow. He will be assisted by Dale Carruthers, Jack Boyd and Ben Murphy. A large turnout is expected.

THIEF BREAKS INTO SCHOOL

CENTERVILLE—A prowler broke into the Centerville Grammar School last Saturday night taking with him a small ink well and going through many drawers, but leaving all in fine order. He was not identified but it is said that he is from out of town.

SPOOK SHOW TONIGHT

CENTERVILLE—Students at Washington Union high school will present a "spook show" tonight, December 10, at 8:15 p. m. in an effort to raise money for basketball uniforms. Fine displays of enchantment and magic are promised.

There is still time to enter the campaign now being conducted by the Township Register, and if you are a real worker you may win the Chevrolet Town Sedan which is first grand prize. You may soon see this car at The Rose Garage, local agents for the Chevrolet.

An all steel-body car with built in trunk, safety glass and all the latest improvements in every part of these cars, and the winner is going to be a very fortunate person.

Falling first prize there are five others, all good and worth the effort to win. It is easy to get subscriptions to The Township Register, Niles only local paper. The people want it and the price is right.

As an instance of how easy it is to get subscriptions, Mrs. Nell F. Myers of Niles Canyon, who could not get to work in earnest until recently has now taken first place from Miss Silva who led the two previous weeks, and is still a close second.

As the interest in the campaign grows, candidates change places rapidly. This week Mrs. D. Attinger is third, having gained two places since last week. Mrs. Joe Boliba who only commenced work a short time ago has come up the line many places and is now fourth. Miss Schelbert has gained from eighth place to fifth this week. Miss Barton is among the high candidates as are Earl Richardson, Miss Leotina Leal

DECOTO FIREMEN HOSTS AT FEED

DECOTO—Decoto firemen entertained about 30 persons last week at their dinner in the fire house. The purpose of the feed, provided by Mrs. A. Ferrante, was celebration of the success of their annual dance at Swiss park.
